

Duolingo English Test Sample Questions and Answers

Know how to prepare for the Duolingo English Test

Taking the Duolingo test is the best way to get admission to undergraduate programmes in the United States. A large number of programmes accept the IELTS and TOEFL tests. The one striking advantage with Duolingo is that submission of scores to all educational institutions is free. On the other hand, with IELTS and TOEFL tests, student needs to pay a $20 fee for submitting the test score reports. The students pay this charge to the educational institution, other than the one particularized during registration.

The striking feature of this test is that you can take the test online at the time and place of your choice. Candidates need not take the pain to travel to an examination centre to take this test. They can take the test as per the availability of time at their disposal from the comfort of their homes; all they need is the necessary equipment.

Duolingo English Test Sample

As applicants appear in the test from home, Duolingo makes sure that the candidates adhere to the stringent rules it has framed. The rules clearly state that the candidates ought to be alone in the room while writing the test, and no one should interfere. They need to take the test without any support. Apart from this, test seekers do not have the option to navigate from the browser during the exam. Apart from this, other additional rules are there.

The test duration is 1 hour. The adaptive test takes 45 minutes and evaluates your reading, writing, listening, and speaking capabilities. The exam also includes a 10-minute video interview that records the answers to open-ended questions.

The Duolingo English Test is a computer-based test that assesses reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills to evaluate real-world language capabilities. To gauge the proficiency of the test taker, a total score on a scale of 10-160 is given.

Most people tend to dream big, but they are unwilling to come out of their comfort zone. As far as plans and deadlines are concerned, they have the blueprint in mind, but they fail during execution. And the prominent reason for that is fear of making efforts because we all want success to make inroads in our lives: however, we do not want to break our current routine. Having this attitude is counterproductive for us because it leads to procrastination.

Numerous psychology experts express solidarity with the opinion that we need to observe silence in two situations. Firstly, when we feel that the other party cannot decipher our feelings from our words. And secondly, when the opposite person can understand us without any words. In the first scenario, expressing our thoughts is an imprudent approach because the other person doesn't match our wavelength. Likewise, in the second situation, it is not worthwhile to speak because our message has already reached the opposite person.
